Managing Change

Take Charge of the Unexpected

You can take charge of your current situation. You will rebound. And you will, most likely, from all you are about to learn, become better prepared to meet the next phase of your work life.

Taking Stock

Assessments

These tools may aid you in clarifying job targets and career direction, or provide information on personality, decision-making, leadership and communication styles.

Marketing Campaign

Resumes and Other Documents

This section allows you to view, update and publish your personal resume information which you can email to your consultant, potential employers and job assistance agencies for their review.

Launch

Research and On-Line Resources.

Investigating job leads and potential hiring employers by using an array of hard copy and on-line resources comprises the research process.

Interviewing

Interviewing and Job Offers

Every step in the job search process is aimed at obtaining interviews. It is at that point, a hiring manager decides if you are right for the job; just as important, it is your time to evaluate whether the job is right for you.
